PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Seems to me that similar words were written last year about the Yuba Sutter Shoot. If my memory hasn't failed me there were 15 members of the club at the Yuba Sutter shoot this past Sunday. The day was more beautiful than last year. The grass was green the sky was very bright and blue. I didn't ask how many shooters they had but it looked to me like there were more this year than last. I will say that there seemed to be a lot of people worn out from the exercise they received from the walking up and down the hills. This include me because I didn't finish. It was so enjoyable I didn't care.

While there a short discussion on Fees was engaged in by a few of us.. So think about this and be ready to make you comments at our next meeting on March 6 at the Blueberry Twist.

Until then may the Sun shine on you but not in your eyes. Its darn hard to see the Target if its in you eyes.

Watachie, Don Harris
